The above table lists the pinch hitters for the San Francisco Giants in 1984. The column for Inning Lead represents the inning in which the pinch hitter was brought into the game, while the column for PHer (PH For) lists the player's name and the player's role in the game. The table includes dates, opponents, and the outcome of the game. The information is formatted in a clear, readable manner, making it easy to understand the details of each pinch hitter's performance.

Note: The table above lists the defensive replacements for 1984 Seattle Mariners games. Each entry includes the date and game information, the opponent, inning, lead, and the player (for) who replaced the original. The replacements are listed in order of their importance. The format is designed to help researchers quickly identify when and how defensive replacements were made during these games.
